VIRGINIA MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

After an International Search,
VMFA Selects
Dr. Sylvain Cordier
as Paul Mellon Curator and Head of the Department of European Art

VMFA Director Alex Nyerges observed, "The installation of Rumors of War at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in December will be a historic moment for our museum and for the city of Richmond. We hope that the sculpture will encourage public engagement and civic discussion about who is memorialized in our nation and the significance of monuments in the context of American history.

Rumors of War, 2019, by Kehinde Wiley, will soon be installed near the entrance to VMFA looking out to the newly renamed Arthur Ashe Boulevard.

VMFA on the Road: An Artmobile for the 21st Century

VMFA's new state-of-the-art traveling museum and art studio launched in October 2018. The climate-controlled 53-foot Volvo trailer includes Wi-Fi to connect visitors with VMFA educators and interactive components to meet their 21st-century expectations.

The main attraction of VMFA on the Road, however, is the opportunity for Virginians to see and experience works of art from the VMFA collection up close.

VMFA on the Road is traveling to remote corners of Virginia to connect with the museum's Statewide Partners program, which includes 1,000 locations—from community centers and small museums to colleges and universities.

Interactive screens provide activities, background information, video interviews with artists, etc.

The first exhibition featured artists from Virginia.
